

Gets Five Days For Assault Rap

George M. Simmons, 18544 Ashley Ave., was sentenced to five days in the county jail Monday by City Judge Otto B. Willett, after Simmons pleaded guilty to assaulting his wife, Christine Simmons, who made a citizen's arrest of her husband, claimed that he threatened her with a small hammer and twisted her arm. The incident allegedly took place at their home Saturday night.

Walt Schaefer Named Special Agent for Prudential Insurance

Appointment of Walt Schaefer, long time Torrance resident and business man, as a special agent for the Long Beach agency of the Prudential Insurance Co. of America was announced yesterday by the firm.

The announcement said Schaefer will devote substantially all of his time to sales and service of ordinary, business, and group insurance in the Torrance area.

Schaefer has been active in several local service and social organizations during the past several years.

Member of Lions Club

He is a member of the Torrance Lions Club, Nativity Holy Name Society, Sobata Club, and has been active in other civic organizations.

Schaefer, who lives at 2806 Gramercy Ave., is married and has three sons. His wife, Rose, has been active in several Torrance groups including the Red Cross. She is the social welfare chairman of the Catholic Daughters of America.

Walt Liberty Home Partner

Walt has been in the real estate and insurance business in Torrance for the past four years and most recently was associated with Jim Lawson and Milt Isbell in the Liberty Home Economy Co. He sold his interests in these enterprises

John Hill Jr. Services Held

Funeral services for John Henry Hill Jr., 59, of 1808 W. Loma Vista Blvd., were held in the Stone and Myers Chapel here Saturday afternoon with Rev. C. M. Northrup, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Torrance, officiating.

A native of Alabama, Mr. Hill had been in the retail lumber business before his death last Wednesday at the Veterans Hospital in Long Beach.

He leaves his widow, Teresa Hill, of the Loma Vista address, four brothers and three sisters. One brother, Howard Hill, is the nationally famous archer.

Mr. Hill was a veteran of World War I, and a member of the Masonic Lodge.

Interment in Roosevelt Cemetery followed final rites.

WHAT IS A&P DOING ABOUT FOOD PRICES?

What is A&P doing about food prices? Last week A&P thrilled millions of families with the best news they had heard in months with the announcement that hundreds of items were priced lower than O.P.S. ceilings at A&P Super Markets. A&P continues its campaign of cutting food bills with more and more items below ceiling prices. How does A&P do it? By working hard and saving so that A&P customers can get more for their money.
